Nebraska Press Association Foundation 2019 Scholarship Recipients Announced

The Nebraska Press Association Foundation has announced the recipients of their 2019 scholarships. This year, $2,000 scholarships will be awarded to two collegiate students and four high school students: Kamrin Baker, Omaha, NE; Natalie Saenz, Scottsbluff, NE; Jenna Ebbers, Cambridge, NE; Mitchell Lierman, West Point, NE; Grace McDonald, Rockville, NE; and Chloe Schock, Falls City, NE.

The recipients will be honored at the 145th Annual Nebraska Press Association Convention Awards Luncheon on Saturday, April 6, 2019, at the Holiday Inn Convention Center in Kearney, NE.

The Nebraska Press Association Foundation was established in the fall of 1991. Under the established guidelines, scholarship applicants must be residents of Nebraska who will be enrolled, either as incoming freshmen or upper classmen, in Nebraska-based colleges and universities this fall in a community journalism program. This year the Foundation has awarded six scholarships.

Member newspapers of the Nebraska Press Association joined in sponsoring the competition for these scholarships by promoting the scholarships in their newspapers.
