

REPORTING ON COURTS IN NEBRASKA

Nebraska Judicial Branch
MEDIA Webpage

REPORTERS' GUIDE NEBRASKA TRIAL COURT PROCEDURES

- The Pre-Trial Process in Criminal Cases
- Initial Court Appearances
- Initial Court Proceedings in County Court (Misdemeanors & Felonies)
- Initial Court Proceedings in District Court (Felonies)
- Post- Arraignment - Pre-Trial
- Trials - Bench and Jury
- Sentencing in Criminal Cases
- Post Sentencing

NEBRASKA.GOV SUBSCRIPTION SERVICES

Trial and Appellate Court case search available to Nebraska.gov subscribers (JUSTICE and SSCALCS Case Search)

SUBSCRIBE TO ALERTS FROM THE JUDICIAL BRANCH

Receive Judicial Branch notices in your email including media releases and court opinions

ELECTRONICS IN THE COURTROOM ARTICLE 20: RULES FOR EXPANDED NEWS MEDIA COVERAGE

Media Coordinators

Media Coordinators are managers who perform administrative duties associated with the court. They are also the first contact for news reporters needing information.

Credentialed News Reporters

Credentials are not needed to attend court, observe proceedings, take notes, or write stories. Credentials are ONLY needed to participate in a media pool and to use certain electronic devices.

Learn about the Responsibilities of Judgeship

Judge Rick Schreiner discusses the job of a judge - outlining the opportunities and limitations of the position. He presides over both civil cases (where private citizens sue each other) and criminal cases.

